this work is an attempt to critically assess the life and the theology of the small churches in india especially in the teluguspeaking land of andhra pradesh in the south for a close examination the author chose the bible mission which started as a break away group from his own church the andhra evangelical lutheran church the relationship of these small groups to the mission churches and their appeal to the non christians has been a much discussed subject in india in recent times indian national independence and church union in the church of south india both in 1947 demanded a rethinking on the part of the indian christians with regard to the mission of the church in india the meaning and methods of ministry and the role of theological education this book is a study of the quest for relevance in indian theological education during the period 1947 to 1987 this book studies concepts of mission such as the traditional evangelization and the modern participation in nation building ministry as changing from the domination of male clergy to the participation of the laity and women theological education as equipment of the whole church for wider involvement in indian society within the context of poverty and religious pluralism it deals with the four decades of thought development and indigenous experimentations simultaneously looking at the effect of the evangelical and ecumenical division of the church s understanding of her mission and ministry in india while studying several seminaries tamilnadu theological seminary is used as a case to illustrate the continuing process of the quest for relevance an extensive bibliography notes on people referred and a directory of theological colleges are additional resources in this work the mutual enrichment and tolerance between christianity and hinduism should be an important theme in any discussion of interreligious co existence because of the influence of both religions in the present day world but is there a meeting point between christian absolutism and hindu universalism can pluralism be a solution if the claim of one religion does not contradict the claim of the other why should a mutual recognition tolerance and co existence be impossible why cannot the followers of different religions live together as brothers and sisters of one single loving father these and many other similar questions are dealt with in this book the half naked fakir dress of gandhi fooled the hindu bengalis into thinking of him as a hindu god as he started the non violence in bengal but it is astonishing to see how the people of the millions of indians of india accepted him as the father of the nation in spite of the thousands of hindu bengalis in calcutta killing and millions of bengalis and punjabis displaced as refugees by the division of bengal and punjab who were compelled to left their ancestral homes for the safety of their lives selecting hinduism and buddhism as examples this book seeks to demonstrate the many colourful facets of the religious phenomenon none of which can be neglected by the students of comparative religion
