that christians represent judaism accurately not only as a matter of justice for the jewish people but also for the integrity of christian faith by linking new testament scholarship to the shoah christian liturgical life and developments in the church this volume addresses the important questions at the heart of christian identity such as are only christians saved why did jesus die why is israel so important to jews and what should we think about the conflict in the middle east how is christianity complicit in the holocaust what is important about jesus being a jew rabbi gordon fuller and dr christian van gorder are committed to helping people of both faith traditions gain as far as is possible a participant s appreciation of those from the other community this means addressing misconceptions and misrepresentations as well as challenging widely held assumptions jews and christians together delves into the strained relationship between these two faith communities and exposes why these communities need to come to a better understanding and appreciation of the other events such as the attack on the tree of life synagogue in pittsburgh pennsylvania demonstrate why society must address and foil anti semitism and anti judaism wherever and whenever such views appear the efforts of fuller and van gorder to explore these issues with their own faith communities can provide a helpful starting point to confront trends of increasing hate and bigotry towards jews today fuller and van gorder ask us to acknowledge the marred history of christianity and anti semitism so that we can explore healthy jewish christian dialogue and gain a shared and constructive mutual respect this is an original philosophical discussion in which andré neher relates the lives of prominent nineteenth and twentieth century jews to traditional jewish thought on issues of assimilation the holocaust and liberal intellectualism a weekly review of politics literature theology and art this study discusses questions surrounding kibbutz and judaism through examination of different kibbutzim and thier issues asserts that three preconditions have produced an imbalance and created difficulties in conducting christian jewish dialogue since 1967 that christians should renounce antisemitism abstain from proselytizing among jews and recognize israel s right to exist within the boundaries accepted by the un discusses rosemary ruether s thesis that christian anti judaism implies the concept of antisemitism arguing that the intention to eradicate the roots of antisemitism from the new testament could shake the foundations of christian teaching and produce a relativization of christianity states that some passages of the new testament are anti judaic only with respect to jesus contemporaries and are not inherently anti jewish ch 8 pp 293 305 discusses the holocaust from a christian theological perspective considering it absolutely inhuman anti biblical and anti christian concludes that all forms of antisemitism including the holocaust are a rejection of the biblical concept of god of man and of judeo christian ethics
